

Red Rock Democratic Club General meeting October 25, 2017

Dan Kruger was called the meeting to order at 7:03 pm.

Debbie Conway, Clark County Recorder led the Pledge of Allegiance for the membership.

One new members were recognized – Steve Sisolak.

The Treasurer's report was given by acting Treasurer Ginni Kruger. A detailed accounting is available at the check in table. Howard Beckerman made the motion that the Treasurer's report be accepted. Barbara Apperle seconded the motion. The membership approved the motion.

Frank Fopiano made the motion that the General Meeting minutes from September not be read and it should be approved. Heather Senn seconded the motion. The motion was approved by the membership.

Dan introduced George Trachtman who is over seeing the upcoming elections. George spoke of the rules for the annual RRDC election which will be on November 15th, our next meeting. He announced the four positions available - President, Treasurer and two At Large members. No one is running for President. George asked Dan if he would continue as President and Dan consented. Ginni Kruger is on the ballot unopposed for the Treasurer position. Mike Herring, Karina Provost, Lani Paz, Jessica Rosenfeld and Heather Senn are on the ballot for the 2 Members At-Large.

Dan made several announcements in his President's Report.

Due to the Thanksgiving holiday the November General meeting will be on the 15th.

The speaker at the November meeting will be Barbara Buckley, Executive director Clark County Legal Services.

The Holiday Party will be held December 9th at Distill Bar and Grill at 10820 West Charleston from 6 PM until 10 PM. Everyone will be able to order off the menu with individual checks and the club will purchase the non-alcoholic drinks and dessert.

Dan introduced the evening's guest speaker, Steve Sisolak, Chair, Clark County Commission and Democratic Candidate for Governor. He spoke briefly about the current projects being built in Clark County and a couple that will be coming soon. He then took questions from the membership.

Dan asked those officials and candidates who had signed up to come forward and say a few words about their campaign or organization.

Drawing for pot of gold was held. Briana Johnson was the winner - she donated her winnings of $40.00 back to the club.

Meeting was adjourned at 8:42 pm.