

GENERAL MEETING
March 26 2014

President Dan Kruger called the meeting to order at 7:05.

Family Court Judge Linda Marquis led the Pledge of Allegiance.

Edith Byrd presented the Treasurer's report with a balance of $ 3813.00.

Dan Kruger introduced the guest speaker, Clark County District Attorney Steve Wolfson. As Clark County's top prosecutor, Steve Wolfson leads the largest and busiest law firm in the state of Nevada. Wolfson manages a $65 million budget and nearly 700 employees, including over 160 attorneys who handle approximately 55,000 cases annually.

The District Attorney oversees the four divisions of the District Attorney's Office: The Criminal Division, the Civil Division, the Juvenile Division, Family Support Division. Each division has several specialty teams that handle cases. The Criminal Division for example, has a Major Violator's unit, Special Victims Unit, Gun Crimes Unit, Domestic Violence/Stalking Unit, Vehicular Crimes Unit, Bad Check Unit, HDTA (High Intensity Drug Trafficking), Criminal Appeals, Others.

Chris Miller, president of the Clark County Democratic Party, reminded us of the Jefferson Jackson dinner May 3rd at the Tropicana, as well as the County Convention the same day and place; and the State Democratic Convention in Reno on June 21.

Several candidates gave a one minute presentation of themselves and why they should be elected:

Cliff Marcek running for District Court dep. 19
Garrett LeDuff running for State Senate district 8
Doug Smith running for District Court Dep. 8
Nicholas Perrino running for District Court Dep. 20
Jerry Wiese running for District Court Dep. 30
Linda Marquis running for Family Court Judge Dep B
Romeo Perez running for Family Court Judge Dep. J
Gary Fisher running for State Assembly District 34
Rebecca Burton running for Family Court Judge Dep. C
Marsha Kimble Simms running for Family Court Judge Dep. C
John Glenn Watkins running for District Court Dep. 2
Jim Crockett running for District Court Judge Dep. 24
FayyazRaja running for State Assembly District 34
Michael Davidson running for District Court Dep. 3

Jonathan Friedrich running for State Assembly district 10

April 1st the Club-members will pack lunches ay Three Square Foodbank.

The pot of gold was won by Brent Arave who provided the delicious Pink Box Doughnuts. He donated the $150 back to the club.

The meeting was adjourned at 8.25

Lisa Kershaw

Recording Secretary 2013